Lawyers of Distinction Welcomes Stephen Barnie Freeman as a 2026 Distinguished Member

The Lawyers of Distinction is proud to announce that, Stephen Barnie. Freeman, a personal injury and family law attorney based in Germantown, Maryland, has been selected and certified as a 2026 Distinguished Member. This recognition places Stephen Barnie Freeman among an elite group of legal professionals nationwide who have demonstrated exceptional skill, integrity, and dedication to the practice of law.

Lawyers of Distinction is widely recognized as the fastest growing community of distinguished attorneys in the United States. Unlike many recognition programs, membership is not available for purchase. Instead, each candidate undergoes a thorough and independent evaluation process that examines objective qualifications including active bar licensure in good standing, a minimum number of years in practice, peer and client reputation, notable case results or professional accomplishments, and a clean disciplinary history. Only those attorneys who satisfy every criterion are extended an invitation to join.

“Being named a 2026 Lawyer of Distinction reflects an attorney’s sustained commitment to excellence in their field,” said a spokesperson for the organization. “Our members represent the highest caliber of legal talent across all 50 states and the District of Columbia. We are honored to welcome Stephen Bernie Freeman into this distinguished community.”

Members gain access to a national network of top legal professionals, exclusive member benefits, and the right to display the Lawyers of Distinction seal—a mark recognized by clients and colleagues as a symbol of professional achievement.
